SCHOOL SCOOPS

DUNDURN ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

A huge thank you to the SCC and parent volunteers for covering lunch supervision for Teacher Appreciation Lunch last month! The staff greatly appreciated the chance to sit down together for lunch.

Hanley Saber Football Team, the 2016- 2017 Provincial Champs, inspired Dundurn School students and staff at an assembly in Dundurn. Leading by example, former Dundurn students along with Hanley teammates not only showed us their championship rings but also shared what it took to be successful. Thank you to Hanley coach Mark Anderson and team for including us in your victory dance and for sharing the Saber Code– Be respectful, develop character, always hustle and be humble.

This year was the most successful Book Fair in Dundurn history! Special thank you to Joan Falk and Brandi Dieno! A total of $1,800 was raised to be spent on books for our library. This was made possible by the dedication and many hours of hard work from volunteers and families buying books. What a great way to spread the love of reading!

Participation was high for our second round of Parent-Teacher-Student Conferences. Seventy-two percent of Dundurn School families came to the school to talk about students' learning achievements and next steps.

We are very excited to announce that developing the Dundurn School Outdoor Learning Space is moving forward! A tentative starting date for constructing a gazebo in the back northwest corner of the school playground is May 1st. Bridget Shannon-Wobeser, Cindy Krueger, Rochelle Fiedelleck and Lynne Peters are the dynamic teachers leading this initiative. They have worked hard researching, applying for grants, visiting other sites and attending meetings. Lead managers of this phase of the project are Aaron Bohrsen and Sean Hopkins. Anyone interested in volunteering time, materials and skills is very much appreciated.

Upcoming Dates to Note:

April 3	School Wide - First Aid Demonstration

SCHOOL SCOOPS

HANLEY COMPOSITE SCHOOL

Our family was having a debate about the “in like a lion - out like a lamb” saying, because this spring it feels like it could have been both, and then the weather shifted within a week and then back again, and then it’s supposed to shift again in the next few days. It almost feels like a football game and whoever has possession at the end of the month will win. I’m sure hoping it’s the lamb. Anyways, try to keep your eyes on the weather and send the right clothing to school with the kids.

We had a busy week ahead with Tri-Conferences taking place on Wednesday and Thursday nights from 5:00 to 7:30 pm. It’s a great time to come to the school with your student and celebrate the great learning they’re doing.

Grade 7-12 students took in a Gym Blast scheduled for Thursday afternoon with that week’s Pizza sale on Thursday as well. Both of our school Ski Trips were scheduled to Table Mountain, with the Grade 7-8 trip on Tuesday, March 21st and the Grade 9-12 trip on Thursday, March 23rd. It’s was a great day for the students. Band festivals were the third week in March as well with junior/intermediate on March 23rd and the senior festival on March 24th.

Our grade 12s had a productive week following the school break in February as most of them took part in the Work Experience class and finished a second week of the course at a workplace in a career area of interest to them. Many times in previous years those placements have turned into part-time jobs or career opportunities for the future. For those students planning on pursuing a trades career and looking to apprentice with a tradesperson, the Youth Apprenticeship Program is a simple program to complete for a step ahead of other apprentices. We’ve also helped send three students in past summers to a Summer Youth internship in a trades area where they receive very good pay and up to two apprenticeship credits on their transcripts. See Mr. Tucker for further information. We had a wonderful Heritage Fair on Friday in the school for the grades 4-7 students. There was a variety of projects and it was obvious that a lot of hard work and lots of effort had gone into their creation. Congratulations to each student and to the finalist projects that move on to the Regional competition. A “Great job!” goes out to Mrs. Bain for organizing the event and scheduling the educational day it turned out to be for everyone. Thanks also to the parents for your help and support.

Well, that’s all for now. For further information and updates from the students and classrooms, check out our school website at <http://blogs.spiritsd.ca/hanley/>.

As always, Mr. Anderson and I would love to talk to you if you have time to drop by the office or give us a call. Take care and I’ll talk to you soon.

TOWN OF DUNDURN

Mayor's Report

Another month gone by. Must be Spring, I've seen starlings, robins, geese, ducks and gophers.

Our new Town logo has had positive responses. We had the new logo in place at the Homestyle Home Show. Our booth there was very well attended and went over well.

We are looking forward to the air show in June. We will be working with the air show planning coordinator to deal with possible traffic issues. Contact Town Office for more information.

Sasktel was contacted about the possible expansion of infiNET in Town. We are going to be engaging in discussions with Sasktel about those possibilities.

We are in the process of hiring an Administrative Assistant as Patty Posnikoff has resigned from her position at the Town Office. Thank you, Patty, for your time with us. All the best to you as you pursue your next step in the adventure of life.

Until next time, have a great day, eh?

Per Vinding
Mayor, Town of Dundurn

"The Mayor, Council and Administration are proud to introduce the new logo for the Town of Dundurn. The decision to change a logo can often be a difficult one. Although residents appreciated the past logo, Council believed that a new logo would reflect the Town's future growth.

The logo is the visual first impression and the quintessential signpost for the Town. The stylized font and a simplified image are designed to establish a new brand identity. This identification highlights the town's name and reflects the tremendous opportunities and emerging growth and development that are currently underway.

Research shows that the average Internet consumer spends only ten seconds on a website and these ten seconds are based entirely on visual first impressions. We are confident that the newly designed logo will help make a good first impression and result in fostering interest and intrigue in our Town."

"New logo reflects future growth"

Wilson Museum News

Spring has sprung! March came in like a lion and it is leaving like a lamb. Thank goodness for the old adages and Farmer's Almanacs. Speaking of Farmer's Almanacs, there are a few old copies right here in Dundurn at the Wilson Museum.

The "Kids Winter Festival" has come and gone. It was held on Saturday, February 25, 2017 on a cool, sunny day. Because there wasn't much snow, some of the games like Snowshoeing, Snowboard Shuffle races and the sleigh rides were not held; however, Hit the Snowman, Winter Word Search, Archery, Winter Coloring, Snowball Toss, Modelling and Floor Dice plus the Jelly Bean Contest were held and the kids and their parents plus the Wilson Museum volunteers had loads and loads of fun. Hunter Schroeder won the Jelly Bean contest. Overall winners of the events listed were: 1st - Taija Guskjolen, Dundurn; 2nd - Shawn Roepe, Dundurn; 3rd - Morgan (?), Dundurn; and 4th - Emma (?), Saskatoon. Congratulations to all the winners and participants who all received prizes, large and small. This event is scheduled for next winter season. A special thank you to Mike Reid festival.

Wilson Museum is looking forward to its opening on the Victoria Day long weekend and the Canada Day Parade, plus "Penny Fair Day" on July 29th (Canada's 150 celebration). Other ideas being "thrown" around are a Children's Pet Day, Children's Yard Sale and a possible Art Show, (children and others). Don't forget the Wilson Museum Logo Contest with the deadline of May 1st for entries. As you can see, the Wilson Museum is focusing on the young generation of the day because they are the ones who need to know and carry on the history of Dundurn and surrounding area.

I believe there were no guesses for the "What is it?" contest. Well, we won't tell the answer because we may run the picture in the future, and it will give folks a chance to visit the museum and try again. The prize of a gift card will be carried over for this month's contest. There is another photo with another guess for the month of April. Look for the photo in the newsletter.

The Wilson Museum will re-open on Victoria Day weekend. For information on the Museum or to book an appointment for a tour, please call Ray Moskowec at 306-491-8651 or Patty Posnikoff at 306-492-4800.

GABBIN' WITH THE GOVERNMENT

HONORABLE TOM LUKIWSKI, MP

Some Canadian consulates in the US were recently caught displaying some decorations: cardboard cut-outs of Justin Trudeau so that visitors could take make-believe selfies with him. That's what the recent federal budget is like. It's a make-believe budget, heavy on style and showmanship but light on substance.

The 2017-18 budget continues the Liberal's trend of fiscal incompetence by digging the country deeper and deeper into deficit spending. Trudeau's election promises of a $10 billion deficit that would "balance itself" and quickly disappear has long since been forgotten. Instead, the deficit will once again spike upwards, ballooning from $23 billion to $28.5 billion over the next year, with no end in sight.

Yet, for all of their out-of-control spending, the Liberals are accomplishing much in this budget. There are plenty of buzzwords and jargon about innovation, superclusters and infrastructure investment but most of these, like Trudeau's cardboard cut-outs, turn out to be a sham. It seems impressive that the budget announced billions of dollars for infrastructure development, social spending, affordable housing and child care spaces until you realize that most of that money had been announced and allocated long before this budget.

In the meantime, in a vain effort to tackle the runaway deficits they created, the Liberals have started nickel-and-dime Canadians in a host of hypocritical ways.

With one breath, the federal government is urging Canadians to save more and reduce their personal debt but, in the next breath, they have eliminated Canada Savings Bonds and tightened the investment criteria for Registered Education Savings Plan and Registered Disability Savings Plans.

On the one hand, the Liberals claim they want to help Western Canadians hit by the downturn in the resource sector. On the other hand, in this budget they have raised Employment Insurance premiums on your paycheque by five per cent, eliminated Home Relocation Loans to help families that have to move to take a new job and failed to deliver on promised income tax cuts.

Perhaps most peculiar of Trudeau's budget hypocrisy is that, in spite of his carbon-tax agenda to encourage Canadians to use public transit more and to car-pool more, he has eliminated the public transit tax credit and slapped a tax on Uber rides.

The long and short is that, for all the smoke and mirrors, for all the empty words about "helping the middle class", all this budget does is drain money out of the pockets of working Canadian families without delivering much that would provide any new benefit for average taxpayers.

The Kenaston office can be reached Tuesday and Thursdays 10 am to 4 pm by phone at 306-252-2626. Constituents can also continue to contact the Moose Jaw office Monday to Friday at 1-866-691-3577.

Tom Lukiwski
Member of Parliament, Moose Jaw-Lake Centre-Lanigan

MLA BRONWYN EYRE

The 2017-18 Provincial Budget, presented on March 22, will ensure our economy remains strong and competitive, while dealing with the challenge of lower resource prices.

Resource revenue in Saskatchewan has declined more than $1 billion and has stayed low for three years now, depleting reserves and the rainy-day fund. Due the resource sector slowdown, tax revenue is down by hundreds of millions and a decade of record population growth is putting pressure on vital services. We must move away from our level of reliance on resource revenues while ensuring important government programs and services are affordable and sustainable.

Our commitment to controlling and reducing government spending includes $250 million in total public sector compensation savings, consolidating 12 regional health authorities into one, holding health spending to a 0.7% increase and winding down STC and Executive Air Service.

The 2017-18 Provincial Budget ensures Saskatchewan taxes remain fair and competitive. Modernizing and expanding the system will secure a more stable revenue base to help sustain valuable services such as health care, education, social assistance and capital investment. This means increasing the PST rate to 6%, expanding the PST base and eliminating some exemptions. Education Property Tax will be rebalanced to fund 40% of K-12 education costs. To mitigate the effect of these changes, the Saskatchewan Low-Income Tax Credit is being enhanced.

Starting this year, we are shifting away from taxes on income and productivity by lowering personal and business income tax rates. Everyone at every income level will pay less income tax, and individuals and families in Saskatchewan will pay among the lowest income taxes in Canada.

Saskatchewan still has the lowest PST rate of any province with a provincial sales tax. And even with these changes, every Saskatchewan resident at every level of income will still be paying significantly less in income tax and PST combined than they did in 2007 under the NDP.

Low taxes and tax incentives create a tremendous advantage in attracting new investment and jobs to our province, and the introduction of new growth tax incentives means Saskatchewan will have the lowest corporate tax rate and manufacturing and processing tax rate in Canada.

This Budget also includes investment in priority areas such as health, education and social services. This includes funding for overcapacity and ER wait times in Regina and Saskatoon as well as $3.7 billion to schools, highways, bridges, hospitals and Crown infrastructure.

At a time when resource sector challenges remain, there are signs of confidence and renewal in our economy. Recently, we learned Saskatchewan was leading the country in job growth and that Saskatchewan was named the best place in the world to invest in mining. Crop production has surpassed 30 million tonnes for four consecutive years, and ag exports have doubled over the past decade. Our population continues to grow: 17,000 more people in the past year means that we've grown by 163,000 in the past decade. Learn more at saskatchewan.ca/budget.

Make sure you stay in touch with any comments, questions, or milestones.

DUNDURN EMERGENCY MEASURES

Spring is here! What does that have to do with Community Emergency Measures? Not much because we are not in an area that has the threat of severe flooding. However, with the arrival of an early spring, comes the dryness of the rangeland which is prone to severe wild land fires, and this is covered in the Emergency Measures plan.

REMEMBER, severe wild land fires are fires where the crisis becomes greater than what our local resources are able to handle. So please follow the procedures established by the Town and the RM of Dundurn when dealing with burning. Thank you.
